01 Presentation from GKN

02 Q&A

Following the presentation and Q&A, we invite you to visit the stations around the room to learn more.

Who We Are

- The facility has been part of the Garden Grove community since 1966, with generations of local families working at it.
- We specialize in aircraft "transparencies," with decades of innovation in materials, coatings, and manufacturing processes.
- 550+ people work at our Garden Grove facility, including 42% in the evacuation zone.

GKN's technology is present in 90% of today's major civil aircraft and improves the performance of more than 100,000 flights per day.

What's Happened Since May

May 21

A methyl methacrylate (MMA) tank began overheating at our Garden Grove facility, prompting precautionary evacuations of the surrounding community.

May 21–26

We brought in leading experts and worked around the clock with the Orange County Fire Authority, U.S. EPA, and all relevant federal, state, and local agencies.

We funded $1 million to the American Red Cross to support residents directly impacted by the evacuation.

May 26

The Orange County Fire Authority confirmed there was no risk to the community. Evacuation orders were lifted.

June 3

We funded $3 million to Orange County United Way's OC Community Resilience Fund to provide assistance to those affected by the evacuation.

We committed an additional $1 million to support broader community initiatives across Orange County.

June 9

At the Garden Grove City Council meeting, we pledged to take meaningful action to earn back your trust, including launching a claims program.

That commitment remains just as strong today.

August 24

We announced plans to launch a claims program to provide up to $100 million for eligible residents and businesses seeking to obtain reimbursement for losses and expenses due to the May evacuation orders.

October 19

The Orange County Superior Court approved the resolution of the District Attorney's Office's civil investigation, which includes the claims program and enhanced safety plan.

Today

GKN continues to coordinate with relevant officials and work with experts as it moves toward a safe return to full operations.

The claims program opened on October 27.

We'll host a series of community events to provide information and assist with the application process.

Safety Enhancements

The Court-approved safety plan for the facility covers four areas:

01

Extensive safety upgrades & new technology

Major improvements to our MMA storage and handling systems, including:

- Equipment that continuously monitors tank temperatures and other conditions
- Equipment designed to stop an unexpected reaction

The tank involved in the incident will not be used again.

02

Independent oversight & accountability

A third-party auditor will conduct regular audits

03

Improved operating & emergency procedures

04

Enhanced employee training

About the Claims Program

Up to $100 million for eligible residents and businesses for certain losses resulting from the May 2026 evacuation.

Court-approved and supervised by an independent, retired U.S. District Judge.

An independent Claims Administrator will evaluate and resolve claims.

The program will remain open for claim submissions for six months, or until $100 million in claims have been approved for payment, whichever comes first.

What to Expect When You Submit A Claim

Voluntary Participation

Participation is voluntary.

Submitting a claim does not waive your legal rights.

Eligibility Verification

All claims are subject to eligibility verification.

Required Documentation

Where required, claimants must submit documentation to support their claims.

Independent Review

All claims are subject to review and approval by the independent Claims Administrator in accordance with the Claims Program guidelines.

Settlement Agreement

If you accept an approved claim offer, you will be required to sign a settlement agreement and release, which will waive legal rights to seek reimbursement again.

The Claims Program Process

GKNGGClaimsProgram.com

Step 1

Start your claim

Enter basic information about yourself, your household, or your business.

Step 2

Add your expenses or losses

Tell us what you are claiming, such as lodging, meals, transportation, lost wages, or business losses.

Step 3

Upload your documents

Add the records needed to support your identity, address, expenses, or losses.

Step 4

Submit your claim

Review your information and send the claim to the Program.

Step 5

The Program reviews your claim

The Program checks eligibility and documents, may ask for additional documentation, and then calculates an offer.

Step 6

Review the offer

You may accept the offer and sign the settlement agreement and release, object with added documents, or decline the offer.

Step 7

Receive payment

If you accept and complete the required steps, including signing the settlement agreement and release, the Program issues payment and closes the claim.

Offers, Acceptance & Payment

Your offer

- Offers made within 75 days of completed application
- Calculated using uniform Program standards
- Includes explanation of the offer (including the option to pursue litigation instead) and a draft agreement
- Open for at least 30 days. If it expires, resubmit during the program period

Accepting an offer

- Requires signing a settlement agreement and release
- Each individual on a claim signs separately; parent or guardian may sign for minors

Payment

- Check issued within 30 days
- Issued and mailed to the primary claimant

We encourage you to submit as soon as possible.

Notice

If you accept a Claims Program offer, you will be required to sign a release dismissing any current litigation and forfeiting the right to participate or claim in a future litigation or settlement against GKN related to the May 21, 2026 incident.

Be advised that there are multiple putative class actions and individual proceedings related to the May 21, 2026 incident that have been filed in Orange County Superior Court and the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California. Information about the lawsuits, including the case names and numbers, plaintiffs' counsel's names and contact information, the filing court(s) and the presiding judge(s), if available, and information about membership in the putative classes, is available on the Claims Program website. Be advised that if you were to proceed in litigation, such litigation, if successful, could result in a higher recovery to you than participating in this Claims Program.
